JAPS REFUSED TO BE SHAKEN FROM SHANTUNG STAND

Lloyd George and Clemenceau Left Task to American President.

GOVERNMENTS WERE PLEDGED
THEY TOLD PRES. WILSON

Conferences With Republican Senators Resumed At White House.

Washington, July 23.—Conference with Republican senators of the peace treaty and the League of Nations convention were continued today by President Wilson. Senators on the visiting list were Page, Vermont; Sterling, South Dakota; McLean, Connecticut and Newberry, Michigan.

President Wilson's condition continued to improve today and it was expected that within a few days he would have entirely recovered from the effects of an attack of intestinal trouble. His condition, however, is still weak. For this reason he held conferences in a room at the White House instead of at the executive offices today.

Inquiry at the White House today concerning provision of the peace treaty was President Wilson's personal solution of the problem brought neither confirmation nor denial and only the statement that no comment could be made. Senators who have discussed the Shantung provision with the President stated, however, that they had not been given to understand that the President proposed the Shantung provision as a solution of the problem but that he had found himself unable to convert the Japanese demand to any other view.

The senators said they had been told that Premier Clemenceau and Lloyd George represented to the President that they were bound by the agreements of their governments with Japan and that if the Japanese statesmen were to be converted to any other view the President himself would have to undertake the attempt. It was futile, the senators said they were told.

Senators calling at the White House today were the last on the original list of 15 senators invited by the President but invitations to the Republican senators to call at the White House will go forward from day to day, it being the President's desire to confer with all of them before he starts on his tour of the country.

WELSH MINERS DO NOT JOIN STRIKE

Nearly 300,000 English Coal Men Have Quit Work, London Dispatch Says.

London, Tuesday, July 22.—The most helpful feature of the coal strike situation tonight was the decision of the Welsh miners at a conference at Cardiff not to join the Yorkshire movement today. There was no great accession of strength to the strike movement today. The men on strike total about 275,000 Yorkshire, Derbyshire, Nottingham and Monmouth being the counties mainly affected.

Sir Eric Geddes, minister without portfolio who on Monday was appointed a commissioner to settle the strike is at Leeds and, according to government statements, will confine himself to affording protection to men willing to work at the pumps and will not interfere in any way with the actual strike movement.

Andrew Bonar Law, the government spokesman, told a questioner in the house of commons today that as far as the government was aware there was no particular reason behind the miners' unrest and that the movement seemed to be a protest against the increased price of coal, the high cost of living, military interference in Russia and conscription.

SOCIALIST MEET
ENDS IN SHOOTING

Communists and Spartacists In Berlin Successful In Attempt To Prevent Speaking.

Berlin, July 22.—Ten persons were shot during disorders which attended the breaking up of a majority socialist meeting by Communists and Spartacists here yesterday. Those attending the meeting which was held in the trades union building, attempted to lynch the man who fired the shots, but he was saved by hospital helpers who were in the building.

Several majority socialist meetings held late yesterday did not develop as smoothly and quietly as they began. Communists and Spartacists by a pre-arranged plan smothered fellow radicals into halls where the majority socialists were congregated and there broke up the meetings by cat calls and other noises and even by violence.

At countless meetings the majority socialist speakers gave up attempting to speak after half an hour of shouting and in the trades union building where the biggest meeting was held, beer bottles, glasses and even tables were thrown about in a successful attempt to break up the gathering.

Government troops had to quell wordy riots in other halls. The Berlin press is indignant at the spread.

ASKS MONEY TO FIGHT FOREST
FIRES IN WEST

Nearly Three Thousand Men Are Unable to Stop Spread of Flames in Timber Tracts.

Washington, July 23.—Congress was asked today by Secretary Lane for a special appropriation of $500,000 to fight forest fires in Montana, Idaho and Washington. Latest reports from Idaho, he said, declare the fires "cannot be extinguished save by a heavy rain of which there is no immediate prospect."

Spokane, Wash., July 23.—Twenty-five hundred forestry service men, and hundreds of men in the employ of timber protective associations have failed to hold in check serious forest fires which were raging today, many of them far out of bounds, in northern Idaho and western and central Montana.

Four Montana towns—Thompson Falls, county seat of Sanders county, St. Regis, on the Cœur d'Alene branch of the Northern Pacific railway; Henderson, near St. Regis, and Maiden, a pioneer mining camp near Lewistown—were damaged seriously by the flames. The blaze is within a mile and a quarter of Thompson Falls and citizens, ranchers and forest service employees were anxious to see the fire.

approximately 25,000 acres in the Madison national forest. Serious conflagrations were raging almost unchecked in the Kaniksu and Pend Oreille forests on the extreme northern part of the Idaho Panhandle in the Cœur d'Alene forest just to the south. A fire between Sand Point and Hope, Idaho, had swept over 40 square miles and destroyed millions of feet pine timber.

BOLSHEVIKI SEEK PEACE IN SOUTH

Offers Bessarabia to Rumania In Exchange For Agreement To Prevent Aid To Kolchak.

London, July 23.—A Bolshevik delegation has arrived at Kishineff with an offer of peace to the commander of the Rumanian frontier troops on behalf of Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier, according to a government wireless dispatch.

Lenine offers to cede Bessarabia to Rumania on condition that Rumania shall prohibit Ukrainian citizens and bands of Admiral Kolchak, head of the anti-Russian government at Omsk, from crossing the Russian frontier.

An armistice to last eight days has been concluded on the Bessarabian front and the delegation has gone to Rumanian headquarters.

GOES TO SAVE BABY
SISTER; BOTH KILLED

Wilmington, July 23.—Mirjorie and Bernice Wicks, aged 3 and one and a half years respectively, children of Ben Wicks, who resides near here, were run down and killed by a B and O train near their home last night. The children had been playing on the railroad track and the older one hearing the train started away, leaving her sister still in the path of the locomotive.

IN RACE RIOTS
IN WASHINGTON

Nearly 3000 Troops Patrol Streets In Effort to Maintain Order.

FEELING BETWEEN WHITES AND NEGROES RUNS HIGH

Pool Rooms, Movies and Other Places Closed By Police Order.

Washington, July 23.—Although there was sporadic shooting in some of the negro districts until early this morning, the major casualties in last night's clashes between whites and negroes consisted of only one white man killed and another probably fatally wounded. Scores were injured in varying degrees as a result of blows of fists, clubs and stones and the wielding of knives, but in none of these cases were the wounds expected to be fatal.

The man killed last night, Isaac B. Hallinger, and the seriously wounded man, Benjamin Belmont, both members of the defense guard, were shot down on the street by a negro while doing duty in one of the black districts.

Despite the fact that the capital was an armed camp the fourth night of the race warfare was less violent than Monday when four persons were killed outright and nearly a dozen seriously hurt. Feeling, which was inflamed by reported attacks upon whites by negroes throughout the day, was no less bitter but an all-night rain and the presence of 2,000 heavily armed soldiers, sailors and marines doing duty with the 700 police and several hundred home defense guards acted as a deterrent upon any attempt at organized mob violence.

The closing of pool rooms, moving picture houses and other places where crowds of negroes might be expected to gather and the policy of the police and military to keep everybody moving enabled the authorities to keep the situation well in hand.

Last night's casualties brought the number resulting from rioting, which began Saturday night, to seven persons dead, 11 believed to be fatally wounded, and scores injured, more or less seriously.

The only fatal outbreak occurring up to midnight resulted from the stopping of a negro by Isaac Hallinger, a Home Defense Guard. Hallinger attempted to search the black, who drew a gun from his pocket and shot the guard through the heart. Another home guard, like Hallinger armed only with a riot stick, ran to his companion's assistance and also was shot. He died later. The negro escaped.

25 REBEL BANDS
HAVE 35,000 MEN

Carranza Forces Number But 60,000, Is Report—Mexicans Hold Americans in Contempt.

Washington, July 23.—Twenty-five distinct bands of rebels with a strength of about 35,000 men now are operating in Mexico, according to a tabulation which has just been published in Mexico City. Opposing them Carranza has a force of about 60,000 men. William B. Mitchell, former manager of the Bank of London in Mexico City, told the house rules committee today that the sending of two American military expeditions into Mexico and their subsequent withdrawal was largely responsible for the anti-American feeling in the southern country. The committee is considering a resolution authorizing investigation of difference between the two countries.

"Do you think the feeling against Americans was strengthened by the belief that the American army was afraid to assert their rights?" asked a member of the committee.

"Yes," said the witness. "Twice American expeditions entered the country and then withdrew."

"The Mexicans then had contempt for Americans?"

"Yes," Mitchell said there was a strong anti-American spirit in the Carranza administration.

Discussing the treatment of Americans in Mexico, the witness said the "treachery" in the Mexican army was largely responsible for depredations in Mexico, particularly in the Tampico district.

Americans are not being treated with the same consideration as other foreigners, the witness said, adding that Healy P. Phelan, of the American ambassador, was openly insulted on the streets of Mexico City while enroute to attend the inauguration of President Carranza while the German ambassador was cheered.

U. S. WILL SIGN TREATY WITH TURKS AND BULGARS

Washington, July 23.—The United States will sign the treaties with Bulgaria and Turkey, it was announced today at the state department.

Only Thirty-Nine More Days.

In thirty-nine more days the victory memorial contest will end. At that time the Ohio War Savings committee will add up the figures and tell the Barre, Vermont, manufacturers to ship the Victory shaft to Licking county—or elsewhere. The shipping directions all depend upon what Licking county people do in the next five weeks.

So far Licking county is leading every county in the state. DON'T BE OVER-CONFIDENT. Remember every stamp purchase helps to bring the big prize. Yesterday one man bought $3,000 worth of W. S. S. $1,000 for himself, $1,000 as executor, $1,000 as a trustee. If the reader can buy only one $5 stamp that will help; if the reader can buy the limit that will be a great help. Every stamp counts.

In buying W. S. S. one is not only helping his county to win a $10,000 prize, but is aiding the government and at the same time helping himself as the purchase of W. S. S. is only saving money and loaning it to the government at a good rate of interest. W. S. S. can always be cashed at a profit. Let's win the shaft. It can be done.

MOONSHINERS PUT

HE IS RESCUED

Prohibition Detectives and Illicit Liquor Makers Stage Real Movie Thriller In Mountain Town.

Huntington, W. Va., July 23.—Seized by a gang of alleged moonshiners, forced before a Greenbrier county justice of the peace and found guilty on a charge of bootlegging was the experience of H. L. Ratliff of Hinton, W. Va., a state prohibition officer who returned late yesterday from an investigation tour into the hills. Ratliff was sentenced to serve 60 days in jail by the justice, but was rescued by Harry Fitzgerald, a brother officer, from an alleged moonshiner who was escorting the convicted officer to the jail.

Ratliff and Fitzgerald went into the hills of Greenbrier to investigate a report that many illicit stills were in operation there. The officers located two stills and Ratliff went to the village of Auto, W. Va. to telephone the department at Charleston for additional men to make the raid. While in Auto, Ratliff was arrested by the gang of alleged moonshiners at the point of revolver, and taken before the justice, charged with bootlegging and was convicted.

Following the rescue of Ratliff by Fitzgerald, the officers destroyed two stills and more than six thousand gallons of whisky and brandy in 19 days. Ratliff, for the earlier county residents, who are charged with manufacturing moonshine.

Following an argument in a street corner Schmitt was overpowered by his body and then gave himself up.

SPECIAL UNIT FOR SOLDIERS WHO MARRIED ABROAD

War Department Arranges To Send Men With Their French Brides to Three Ports.

Washington, July 23.—Special regiments, composed largely, if not entirely of married men, probably will result from the war department policy, announced today regarding the disposition of regulars who are returned to this country with French wives. Orders have been sent to commanding officers of demobilization ports to transfer such men and their wives to either Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia; Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont; or Fort Meyer, Va., when they belong to the cavalry, and to Madison Barracks, New York, in the case of infantrymen.

Tentatively selected as the units which are to become the F. F. V. (father of families veterans), of the military establishment are the third cavalry at Fort Meyer and Ethan Allen, the sixth cavalry at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and an infantry regiment yet to be named, at the New York post. The regimental commander in each instance has been instructed to provide facilities which will enable the soldier to take care of his new responsibilities.

Official estimates are that 20,000 American soldiers married foreign brides. A majority of these men were emergency enlistments, however, and it is believed their regiments will be sufficient to accommodate the regulars. Enlisted men in the staff corps will be ordered to report to Washington temporarily and will be distributed from that point to specially selected billets.

When caught he was wearing two coats and several in overcoat and underwear and the pockets of all his clothing were filled with rocks. He offered the police $10,000 if they would not hurt him.

DIRIGIBLE PILOT
REFUSES TO TALK
BEFORE CORDONER

Investigation Adjourned Until Witnesses Decide To Talk.

VICTIM SAYS BACKFIRE OF MOTOR CAUSED TRAGEDY

Declares Chief Pilot Refused To Make Trip Because of Troubles.

Chicago, July 23.—The investigation by federal state and city authorities in to the cause of the destruction of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company's dirigible on Monday which resulted in the death of 12 persons, the injury of 28 others and the wrecking of the interior of the Illinois Trust and Savings bank, was resumed today.

The investigation which started yesterday was adjourned because of the refusal of two witnesses, John A. Boettner, pilot of the ill-fated ship on its last trip, and W. C. Young, local aeronautical expert of the company—to testify on the advice of counsel. They are held by the state's attorney while the other members of the crew who had related in detail the events which led to the plunge of the machine through the roof of the bank, were released to their attorneys.

Coroner Hoffman is working with a double journey in an attempt to place the responsibility of the deaths, one jury hearing testimony and the other acting in an advisory capacity.

Henry Wacker, surviving mechanic of the disaster, who is suffering with a cracked skull, broken ribs and three fractures of the shoulder and three ribs, said that the fire in the airship was caused by backfire of the motor. He declared that the crew knew of the trouble which was being experienced with the engines and that Chief Pilot Kraus had refused to go aboard for the final trip.

The dependents of the employees of the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank who were killed, will receive $4,500 insurance, it became known today. Each was insured for $1000 on a life policy and $3,500 on an accident policy furnished by the bank.

Only theories as to the cause of the explosion and destruction by fire of the dirigible machine, resulting in 12 deaths and injury of 28 other persons yesterday, were elicited at the first session of the coroner's inquiry yesterday.

The cause of the disaster seemed as far from disclosure as at the moment when flame spurted along the gas bag as it soared above Chicago's skyscrapers before plunging down through the roof of a great bank, spreading fatal flames and bookkeepers, clerks and stenographers.

At least four theories for the start of the fire were heard. Pilot John Boettner, who has been held in custody, told the state's attorney that spontaneous combustion probably caused the disaster.

W. C. Young, chief of the aeronautical forces of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company, owner of the dirigible, suggested burning oil from the motor cylinders.

Lieutenant Thomas Atkinson, purchasing agent for the motor transport corps, U. S. A., was inclined to believe a leaky valve was responsible and that static electricity caused combustion.

Montford Morrison, a member of the coroner's jury and a technical expert, who examined the broken motor, suggested that he found all exhausts open and that sparks therefrom may have ignited the gas bag.

POMERENE WILL SEEK PRESIDENCY

Announcement of Candidacy Is Made In Washington—Other Democrats Are "Mentioned."

Washington, July 23.—Announcement that Senator Alton Pomerene of Ohio will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the presidency was made here yesterday. It came in the form of a statement given out by Joseph C. Breitenstein of Cleveland, former secretary of the Democratic state executive committee.

Mr. Breitenstein declares that from present indications the United delegation from Ohio will support Mr. Pomerene's candidacy and that "the prospects for Democratic success are becoming brighter every day."

The senator's friends point out that there is now no candidate for the Democratic nomination in the field activity. Politicians have been discussing the probability of President Wilson seeking a third nomination, but the president's closest friends say he will not enter the race.

No authoritative statement has been made as to whether former Secretary of the Treasury William A. McAdoo will be a candidate. The names of Attorney General J. Mitchell Palmer and Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Nebraska have also been mentioned as probable candidates.

The fund to be distributed to the consumers of gas entitled to the refund amounts to about $26,000, and this will be paid to those entitled to a refund as soon as the accountants have an opportunity to make the calculations and distribution.

The former distribution of the fund amounted to about $140,000.

The other document is used by the American peace delegation at Paris which have been asked for by the Senate in its consideration of the treaty. The American committee has not yet reached a decision as to what members of the American delegation to examine the evidence of the treaty. It is probable that Mr. Loring will be named to the committee.

Senator Fessenden, Vermont, today introduced his objection to the ratification of the League of Nations. He said that he would not support the League of Nations. He said that he would not support the League of Nations. He said that he would not support the League of Nations.

The South Dakota senator assured the president of the board of trustees of the League of Nations that such a reservation as he outlined would be accepted readily by the other powers. He expressed dissatisfaction with the withdrawal provision but the president is understood to have accepted the language of the provision would permit easy withdrawal on two years notice.

LOSES NERVE AFTER PLANNING SUICIDE

A "suicide letter" is on file at the patrol station which was sent in by the mother of the man who contemplated taking his own life by jumping off the Second street bridge. To accomplish that feat, however, he would have to arrange to have the river dammed at that point so that there might be water enough to drown him.

He wrote a letter to his mother bidding her goodbye; also, to his present wife and a former wife, designating the latter as No. 1 and the former No. 2. All his affections centered in the wife whom he had lost through the divorce courts and he requested her to attend the funeral and place a flower against his cold dead face, and place a photograph of them taken before marriage upon his breast.

His letter to wife No. 2 requested her to refrain from attending the obsequies. He was back at work today.

JAPS ISSUE DENIAL.

and before he could escape slashed him severely.

Scenes in several parts of the city were reported to have fired on passing whites, but in no other instances was anyone killed or injured. Scores of negroes were arrested, charged with carrying firearms, with which they were looking up for several days.

After a conference between Secretary Baker and President Wilson, late yesterday, the secretary announced that the troops ordered from Camp Meade constituted a very large number, and that Major General William H. B. Hays would be in command. Secretary Bland said a substantial force of marines had been ordered in for night patrol duty.

Cavalry again played a part in the police work holding together the congested negro sections of the city on Monday. Backed by other blacks or whites, police and soldiers again struggled to keep the downtown thoroughfares clear of crowds.

The resolutions introduced late yesterday ranged from that by Representative Clark, Democrat, Florida, charging that the district government had utterly failed to put a stop to the crime wave that has swept the city for a month and calling for professional assistance, to that by Representative Emerson, Republican, Ohio, and Vaile, Republican, Colorado, demanding that martial law be declared. Representative Emerson's resolution demanded the situation was a "national scandal" and called for protection of citizens "irrespective of color," while Representative Vaile declared the "dignity and honor" of the United States required a martial law enforcement of order.

Representative Hill, Republican, New York, introduced a bill to regulate the sale of firearms in the district. In the absence of any such law the district commissioners induced hardware dealers and others to stop the sale of weapons. At least 500 revolvers were said to have been sold in a single day, despite the disturbance. Despite the terror cars, though requiring special tags for operation after dark, also were discussed, but no action taken.

PREMIER GETS CONFIDENCE VOTE

Chamber of Deputies Vote 272 to 181 to Continue Cabinet of France's "Tiger."

Paris, July 23.—(Havas)—Premier Clemenceau, who won for his cabinet a vote of confidence late yesterday in the chamber of deputies, emerged from the conflict stronger than the test-vote showed.

The final vote of confidence on a resolution by Deputy Simon, approving the government's declaration of policy, showed confidence in the government by 259 to 176, a majority of 113. The first vote, which was on a demand for priority for the resolution of Deputy Chaumet, gave the premier a majority of 91, the resolution being defeated 272 to 181.

Mr. Chaumet's resolution, for which priority was asked, was of the high cost of living. Passage of it was sought over the resolution of Deputy Augagneur, which was adopted Friday by a majority of 14. The government being in the minority. It was the Augagneur resolution that resulted in the resignation of M. Boret, the former food minister, now replaced by Joseph J. B. E. Moulens.

Paris, July 23.—The chamber of deputies gave a vote of confidence to the cabinet of M. Clemenceau yesterday afternoon, 272 to 181.

M. Clemenceau's opponents were jubilant over the vote in the chamber, saying that it spelled the doom of the cabinet as at present constituted.

Premier Clemenceau, on leaving the chamber, said: "This is a mere skirmish. The real battle is coming."

The premier was cheered as he departed, many officers surrounding him and shouting "Vive Clemenceau!" and "Long live the father of victory!"

Annoyed during the debate by repeated interruption from the Socialists, in which Jean Bon and M. Varenne were conspicuous, M. Clemenceau himself ascended the tribune. Amid tense silence the old man walked slowly up the steps and turned and saluted the Right and Center and glowered at the extreme Left. The light of battle was gleaming in the "Tiger's" eyes, as he said, in a low voice:

"You blame me for not having chosen my colleagues from the learned. An eminent man is not necessarily a member of the French Academy."

The house laughed and was disarmed. Strolling up and down the tribune, the premier hesitated, stopped and then continued:

"You wanted me to make war. I have made war. You wished me to make peace. It is harder to make peace than it is to make war. It is a question of confidence. I have obtained all that France could desire, and many things that France could not hope for."

M. Clemenceau expressed the desire to go before the country in new elections.

"I had thought that after five years of war I might rest, but I have been told I must be continued."

"The work of peace which I have at this moment is as hard as the work of war. I am doing it. But I shall give you a medal of honor if you send me from the tribune."

As M. Clemenceau descended from the tribune at 5 o'clock, a year ago today, from the Chamber of Deputies, he was greeted by a throng of supporters. He was surrounded by a throng of supporters. He was surrounded by a throng of supporters.

Delicate Mechanism

Despite its scope, Swift & Company is a business of infinite details, requiring infinite attention.

Experienced men must know livestock buying with a knowledge of weight, price, the amount and quality of meat the live animals will yield.

Each manufacturing operation must be done with expert skill and scientific precision. A highly perishable product must be handled with speed and care to avoid loss.

Chemists, engineers, accountants, and other specialists are required to take care of our intricate problems.

Alert wisdom and judgment must be used in getting stocks of goods into the open channels of demand through our four hundred branch houses. Branch house organizations must show activity and energy to sell at the market in the face of acute competition from other large packers, and hundreds of small ones.

All these requirements of intelligence, loyalty, devotion to the task, are met in the personnel of Swift & Company. Yet the profit is only a fraction of a cent per pound, with costs at minimum.

How can the workings of this delicate human mechanism be improved upon?

Do you believe that Government direction would add to our efficiency or improve the service rendered the producer and consumer?

Two discoveries have added greatly to human welfare.

In 1835 Newton originated the vacuum process for condensing milk with cane sugar to a semi-liquid form.

In 1883 Horlick at Racine, Wis., discovered how to reduce milk to a dry powder form with extract of malted grains, without cane sugar.

This product HORLICK named Malted Milk. (Name since copied by others.) Its nutritive value, digestibility and ease of preparation (by simply stirring in water) and the fact that it keeps in any climate, has proved of much value to mankind as an ideal food-drink from infancy to old age.

Tonight's Game.
Holsey vs. Midland

The "big game" that was to have been played off last night disappointed over two thousand baseball fans that had gathered to see a battle royal. At 6:15 Empire Livingston awarded the game to the B. and O. team, the Pharisees failing to appear. The Pharisees manager has withdrawn his team from the Twilight League owing to the result of the commission's action last Saturday night when they upheld Midland's protest.

Already another team is seeking the berth vacated by the rubber men. Action on it will be taken by the commission.

A scrub team was hustled together to play an exhibition game against the rubberers. The good natured fans gave the lumen-colored scrubs their hearty support and did not leave them until the game was over. "Smitty" drew a "big hand" when in the second inning trying to catch Nutter's foul ball upset a fan.

Stevens blanked the scrubs for four innings and then gave up his place to Ditter, who allowed five hits, hit one, and struck out one.

PHARIS MANAGER EXPLAINS ACTION

Declares Team Was Withdrawn Because Dispute Was Not Submitted to Disinterested Authority On Baseball.

The Pharisee team, leader in the Twilight League, has been withdrawn from the league by Manager Bishop and the team did not appear at White Field Tuesday evening to play the game with the B. and O. team. As a result, the game was forfeited to the B. and O., placing that team at the top of the heap.

Manager Bishop yesterday afternoon gave four reasons for his action, and announced that hereafter, he would play independent baseball on Saturday afternoons and Sundays.

The reasons assigned by Manager Bishop for withdrawal from the league were:

(1) Failure of the league commission to submit the dispute to a disinterested baseball authority.

(2) Failure of the league to adhere to the plan which Bishop says was adopted at the beginning of the season, that no protests would be considered.

(3) A violation of the rule stating that the Midland protest on the umpire's decision, and

(4) Ordering the disputed game thrown out upon a protest after the one put forward on the field during the game.

Bishop declares that the Midland team protested the game on an alleged foul, and that this protest was not submitted to the commission, but that it did throw out the game on another day.

The game was ordered played over by the commission because the umpire ruled out a home runner who went to first on a dropped third strike.

In this case, Bishop says, the rule was not followed, and the game was thrown out.

He returned to his bench, placed his bat in the pile, and then was seized by a man who pushed him toward first base. He then went to the base and was caught out on a play being made to catch him.

The umpire ruled that there was a provision in the official rules covering the point in argument.

Bishop maintains that the rule provided that a ball man become a base runner if he dropped a third strike.

SCENE OF KAISER'S PROPOSED TRIAL FIGURES PROMINENTLY IN HISTORY

Washington, D. C., July 23.—The Tower of London, suggested as a place where William Hohenzollern might be held pending his trial, is described in the following bulletin from the National Geographic society:

"Place and prison, once noted also for its menagerie and its pagantry, birthplace and death-house of monarchs, scene of hairbreadth escapes and its memories of tortures and killings and sacred for its martyrs, the Tower of London amply warrants description as the most ancient and most poetic pile in Europe."

"William the Conqueror gave London a charter but built the Tower of London to show the people how little that charter might mean. Like the English constitution the rambling London Tower of today is a product of centuries, and not only but many towers, now are scattered over some 13 acres, the site had been a fortress since Roman times."

"To the Middle Tower Elizabeth came back a queen five years after her jealous half sister, Mary, had kept her there a prisoner. The hump-backed Richard III, sired three assassins to murder his nephews in Bloody Tower. Not until years later were their bones found and taken to Westminster Abbey."

"Lady Jane Grey, who 'had the birth of a princess, the life of a saint, and the death of a malefactor,' was beheaded in the Tower. Henry VIII, headed in London Tower, Henry VIII, waited to hear a gun fired from White Tower, signal of the execution of Anne Boleyn, so he might marry Jane Seymour next day. Henry's minister, Thomas Cromwell, sent hosts of enemies to London Tower to be butchered until he helped pick Anne of Cleves for his much-married monarch, but when Henry saw this prospective bride he pronounced her a 'Flower of no use' and went Cromwell's head with the rest."

"Believing such stories of royal cruelty are the immortal 'last words' of the brave men and women who laid their heads on the axman's block."

"God forbid the king shall use any more such mercy to my friends," laughed Sir Thomas More when told that Henry VIII had 'mercifully' consented to let him be beheaded instead of hanged, and to the executioner, as he moved his head aside, 'pity that should cut that has not committed treason.'"

"The Countess of Salisbury proudly refused to lay her head on the block because she had committed no wrong, so that, says an observer, apologizing for the executioner, 'he was constrained to fetch it off slovenly.'"

"If you strike me twice, I cannot promise you not to stir," warned Monmouth. Asked to raise his head a bit, Algernon Sidney retorted: 'Not until the general resurrection strike me.'"

"Peter," inquired Sir Walter Raleigh, to keep up the spirits of his attendant: 'Dost thou know of any plaster to set out?'"

"His head on again when it was cut off?"

"Consigned to the Tower for some 13 years, Sir Walter set a fashion which made a salon out of the palace-prison. While he was not attending his garden, and distilling essence from plants, he wrote his quaint 'History of the World,' and there, too, William Penn wrote 'No Cross, No Crown,' not to mention the writings of the Duke of Orleans and Sir John Elliot."

About the main entrance to the Tower was a menagerie until a hundred years or so ago because Frederick II, of Germany sent Henry III of England several panthers and Henry did not know what else to do with them. Later James I. who died by beheading, added those animals to the zoo."

"The warders, known as 'beef eaters,' probably because they once were fed on rations of meat, form one of the curiosities for London visitors. They wear Tudor costumes and, like the Swiss body guard of the pope, they kept their ancient costumes, undisturbed by currents of modern fashion."

"Just before midnight the head warder and the porter, carrying a bunch of huge keys, go to the guardroom, summon the escort of the keys, make up of 'beef eaters' and then proceed ceremoniously to lock the great outer gate. The pass-word is given formally to sentries as the procession passes, and in conclusion the detail salutes the keys as the porter cries, 'God preserve the king.' Every three months the reigning king or queen sends the password of the Tower to the constable, signed and sealed, and the mayor of London is the only other outside person supposed to know it. This custom is a relic of the time when the Tower was primarily a fortress."

"Like the Bastille, London Tower has been stormed. Desperate efforts have been made to steal the royal regalia kept there, which include the ancient 'anointing spoon' and Queen Elizabeth's salt cellar. One famous effort, in which a Colonel Blood, disguised as a clergyman, nearly made away with the jeweled crown, is thought by some to have been inspired by Charles II, because he needed the money the rare regalia would bring."

"One of the less well-known, but most spectacular incidents, was the escape of two priests by a ruse that would have done credit to Monte Cristo. One of them having been stung up by the hands for days, and then put in a rack while his wrists still were swollen, with out making him betray his tale, wrote in orange juice to friends outside for a light rope with a weight at one end. He also asked that a boat be brought to the river below Cradle Tower on a certain night. On that night he made his way to his fellow prisoner's room. The two flung the weighted end of the rope to their friends in the boat, pulled up a heavier rope, climbed from the steep walls to the boat safely, and made their escape."

One of them having been stung up by the hands for days, and then put in a rack while his wrists still were swollen, with out making him betray his tale, wrote in orange juice to friends outside for a light rope with a weight at one end. He also asked that a boat be brought to the river below Cradle Tower on a certain night. On that night he made his way to his fellow prisoner's room. The two flung the weighted end of the rope to their friends in the boat, pulled up a heavier rope, climbed from the steep walls to the boat safely, and made their escape."

THE SHANTUNG CASE.

Republican senators opposing the league from every viewpoint now find in the Shantung settlement, something more to roar about and rant about. Oratory unlimited fills the air and one might think that the Chinese were the dearest things to the heart of those senators.

Now the uproar concerning the Shantung case might be taken more seriously by the public at large if the attitude of the senators had been more conciliatory toward the league. Had Senator Lodge and his fellow Republican leaders withheld their judgment of the league until it was consummated and had they not tried to pick it to pieces on every occasion, jumping from one thing to another like a bunch of grasshoppers, their criticism of the Shantung matter would carry much more weight.

The President has given a full, free and fair explanation of the situation that confronted the peace conference. China, with the league, will be in far better position than before and the league will be China's protection. It might have been better could this question have been settled differently but it could not. The case is not serious enough to warrant the overthrow of the league; that much is certain. If the league fails, China will be in a position far worse than under the covenant for she will once again be the prey of most of the great nations. China, in the league, will find real protection and eventually through the league, the economic holdings of Japan will be yielded in the course of time.

Now the senate obstructionists are throwing fits over the Shantung settlement. One wonders what will be the next in their list.

OUR DUTY TO THE WORLD.

(Rochester Post-Express.)
The world longs for peace. The greater nations are heart-sick of war. Unless they were directly attacked it would be difficult, perhaps impossible, to arouse among their masses enthusiasm for further fighting. Yet angry passions still flame up in much of Europe. The Balkan cauldron still seethes. Russia is in turmoil and misery. Conditions in Asia Minor are pitiful beyond our comprehension. Racial hatreds are as fierce as ever. Not even nominal peace with Turkey and Bulgaria has been made, and no statesman of Europe can be found whom dark forebodings for the future do not oppress. New problems have been added to the age-old, still unsettled questions, ambitions and national aspirations out of which the great war grew. Racial rancors and rivalries still inflame ravaged and destitute peoples, or even in their awful tribulation human nature has not sensibly changed.

Along among the nations America faces the future with optimistic confidence, more prosperous, peaceful and hopeful than any other land. We have less of internal dissensions and fewer adjustments to the altered world conditions born of the war. We have our problems and our worries and while these seem serious enough, as minor troubles always do when great ones do not dwarf them, we ought to realize how light they are compared with those of the rest of the world. In a sense the old world troubles are ours and call for our sympathy and assistance. But they do not come home to us as though they were our own; neither would it be possible for us to relieve them beyond a certain point, try as we might. With the best will in the world to banish sorrow from the lives around us, we can only alleviate it; for individuals and families and states have their own burdens which no one else can carry for them—have their own trials which they must meet and bear alone.

This is no counsel of cold heartedness, but merely a recognition of facts as they are. It is little that we can do to help Europe to a different state of mind. The doctrine of working out one's own salvation applies no less to peoples than to persons. Tribulations must be designed to teach men and nations lessons that can be learned in no other way. We as a nation have had our own and have profited by them; and it may be that most that we can do is to give unhappy peoples such help as our relative abundance permits in these disturbed years of their readjustment to the better order which will grow out of the war.

None of the cities mentioned in this connection seems to want the trial of the Kaiser held there, but we suppose Toledo would be willing to take it. Ohio State Journal.

"REPRESENTATIONS TO MEXICO."

(Providence Journal.)
The disclosure of a long series of unrequited outrages on American citizens in Mexico may follow as a result of the agitation over the matter, revived in congress with the coming of peace in Europe. The widow of an American murdered last month is on her way to Washington to lay the circumstances before the state department, and very likely she will have an opportunity to lay them before a congressional committee.

How many of these cases are there? The house passed a resolution the other day, calling the state department for all the information in its possession respecting the slaying of Americans, and the damages to American property which undoubtedly runs into millions. According to a current report from Washington, the latest murder will bring the total to about 500—at least, that number is charged against the Mexican government in complaints of next to kin which the administration has on file.

It is further stated for the public's information that "representations have been made to the Mexican government in each and every case." Everybody can understand what that means. We need only to recall the historic series of "representations" made to the German government from the day the Lusitania was sunk to the proclamation of ruthless U-boat warfare. The effect of the 500 notes addressed to the government of Mexico appears to have been about the same as that of the administration's notes to Germany. Apparently nothing has followed, except perhaps return notes which were less than nothing.

The Mexican government, very likely, long ago grew tired of this desultory correspondence. But our state department, we may be sure, has been keeping it up relentlessly.

A ONE-SIDED TRADE.

(New York Herald.)
There appears to be alarm in the minds of some persons over what they call our one-sided export trade. The fact that our exports for the first 11 months of 1918 exceeded our imports by $3,800,000,000 is raised. How long can the country stand it? How long can foreign countries pay for our goods now that government advances have stopped?

Foreign trade is like any other trade. It is a barter, not a gift. It is not merely barter that is an exchange of goods, but an exchange of services. That service may be in goods, it may be in credits, it may be in the transfer of gold. It follows the law of supply and demand. An export of goods is not a necessity for the sake of the nation as a whole, but for the sake of an individual.

A nation's commercial and industrial prosperity is gauged, however, by its sales abroad, but by its power to consume at home. If the purchasing power of our people is at high water mark, prosperity is present, and vice versa. A nation's secondary products, such as home furnishings, should not be sold at a loss, but at a profit. To cultivate the former at the expense of the latter would be a mistake. There should be more alarm over the depreciation of sales at home than over appreciation of sales abroad.

Did You Know
That camphor is a solid essential oil which is found in many plants? It particularly abounds in certain species of laurel. Almost all the camphor of commerce is produced from camphor laurel, a native of China, Japan, Formosa, and Cutchin China. It has also been introduced into Java and the West Indies. Camphor, in alcoholic solution, though generally used for external application, is sometimes taken internally. In small doses it acts as an anodyne and in very large doses it is an irritant poison.

The Gardener's Plight.
Although I've spaded, tilled and dug,
For many a strenuous week and bug,
And mulched every weed and bug,
My beans are not in flower.

'Twill be a weary while before
I have corn on the cob,
And my tomatoes make me sore,
They're soldiering on the job.

So far, for all my hours of toil,
(The thing my spirit grieves),
I've wrenched an onion from the soil,
And three small lettuce leaves.

You should have hired a farmette
With rosy cheeks and eyes of jet,
To manure your little hills,
And doctor up their aches and ills.

A gardener like this, I know
Would make your young cabbage grow
To such enormous size that, sounds,
You'd think each head weighed forty pounds.

For peas and beans and all of that She's got the recipe down pat,
And lettuce will grow broad and tall
When on its leaves her glances fall.

But if you're married have a care
Or there'll be trouble, I declare,
Because a certain danger lies
In most all lady gardeners' eyes.

THE REFORMATORY IMPERILED.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
That excellent penal establishment, the Mansfield reformatory, which has long been held a model of prison method and management, is in danger of disintegration unless the state government comes to the rescue with an additional $10,000. The amount is trifling in comparison with the issue at stake, the saving of the great institution devoted for years to the welfare of Ohio.

Ten days ago The Plain Dealer offered an analysis of the situation at Mansfield, where it was shown that because of the state's fiscal condition the excellent reformatory built up through many years by the late Superintendent Leonard was in danger of immediate deterioration. Men in essential positions cannot be retained in the state's service at salaries fixed at a time when the cost of living was far below what now obtains. Industry, with its higher wage and salary level, is already making sad inroads into the personnel of the reformatory, and the end is not in sight.

Government has been suggested that the emergency board should come to the rescue. The question is of vital concern. Remedial action should not be delayed.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
Cleveland has been experimenting with municipal ownership for 25 years. It has had a long time to find out if it doesn't pay, and now wants to sell its electric plant to an existing company. It has found out that people do not make a good thing out of their own plant. More than it might be, it is frittered away in whims and the loss of whatever a little economic sense have saved it. In this connection it is getting ownership. The argument against that is not for the real improvement any, but based on the social uplift. There has been much delay, probably because the city is not ready for a real improvement.

OFFICER CHARGED WITH CRUELTY, IS IN PRISON

New York, July 22.—Lieutenant F. H. Smith, termed "Hardboiled" Smith by the American expeditionary force because of brutality to American soldier prisoners, for which he was convicted in France, whose wife yesterday began suit for divorce in San Diego, is now in the disciplinary barracks on Governor's Island, where he was taken on his arrival here Sunday night from Brest.

Despite his sobriquet, the officer is not a formidable-looking man, having little which would suggest the terror he is said to have caused among prisoners under his charge.

He appears to be about 40 years old. His gray hair is clipped short in prison fashion. His eyes are something between gray and brown and green. He is about five feet eight and one-half inches in height and weighs perhaps 160 to 170 pounds.

Since his arrival Smith has kept to himself. He appears to distrust every body and acts like a man who is in constant fear, his fellow prisoners say.

San Diego, Cal., July 22.—Mrs. Marguerite Michel Smith yesterday filed a petition asking for divorce from Lieutenant F. H. Smith, who was given the sobriquet of "Hardboiled" by the men of the American army. She alleged brutal treatment.

Smith's career as commander of Prison Camp No. 2 in France recently came in for congressional investigation.

FORD SAYS EDESEL WANTED TO ENLIST

Declares He Had Many Offers But Was Dissuaded By Father Who Needed Him.

Mount Clemens, Mich., July 22.—According to the testimony of Henry Ford today his son Edsel wished to go to war, but was dissuaded by his father.

The examination of the elder Ford, who took the stand eight days ago in his libel suit against the Chicago Tribune, was concluded and he left the court house. He was examined by Attorney Elliott G. Stevenson for the Tribune and by his own lawyer, Alfred Lucking. It was the latter who brought up the subject of the exemption of Edsel Ford which has figured in the recent speeches in the United States senate.

"Will you state whether your son had become necessary to the work of your great factory when the United States entered the war in order to relieve you of the detail of it?" asked Mr. Lucking.

"We have worked together all his life time," said the witness.

"Had he reached a position where he was a great relief to you?"

"Yes, he is a great relief to me."

"In looking after war work?"

"Yes."

"He personally was willing to go to war?"

"Yes, he had many offers."

Marguerite Clark
Dainty Marguerite Clark has attracted good crowds to the Auditorium and will be seen for the last time this evening at that theatre in Mark Thompson Davies' great story, "Little Miss Hoover", a Paramount feature.
Independent of her looks, sweetness and charm, which have made her one of the most popular of motion picture stars, Marguerite Clark is a painstaking player who subordinates every personal convenience to her art. This has been evidenced by her in every photoplay in which she has starred. Miss Clark, therefore, is an artist of exceptional force and it is no wonder that her admirers term her the "sweetest girl in motion pictures." In "Little Miss Hoover" wherein she appears as a patriotic American girl who indulges in chicken farming so that Uncle Sam may win the war, her winsome personality is conspicuously in evidence throughout. In "Little Miss Hoover" she scores an artistic success and if you miss the last screenings today, you miss a real treat.

parents in the Turkish city of Harpoot.

dreds of thousands of Armenians living here, within the shadow of Mt. Ararat, are industrious, quiet, intelligent people, forming the oldest Christian nation.
For centuries the Armenians lived a life of terror and constant fear, because of the murderous attacks of the fanatical Turks. For some time before the opening of the story, however, the Turks had been quiet. Aurora's family had been growing prosperous, and her father was preparing to send her West to be educated.
But into this serene picture creeps
East the hand of war which had begun to devastate Europe. Matters reached the pass where the Turks openly tell the American Ambassador in Constantinople, Henry Morgenthau, that the Armenians were giving secret support to Russia, the enemy of Germany and Turkey.
Consequently his plot fails to prevent the issuance of an order that hundreds of thousands of Armenians must be moved Southward from their fruitful homeland into the desert. The Turks know this virtually means the extermination of the Armenians.

FAVORITE OF THE HOUR
Aurora Mardiganian, the young and beautiful Armenian girl, who has been sold into slavery by a desert bandit, is the star of the film "Auction of Souls". She is a young girl of about 18 years of age, with dark hair and eyes, and a sweet, winsome expression. She is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, dress with a high collar and long sleeves. The background is dark and indistinct, focusing attention on her face and upper body. The lighting is soft, highlighting her features.

She is the Armenian beauty who escaped to America after two years of unspeakable adventures in the hands of Kurdish Raiders, Slave Markets and Turkish harems. Although the newspapers have given her story pages of space the National Committee chose the screen as the most vivid medium of bringing home to the American people what their Christian sisters endured in ravished Armenia. The resultant screen epic has been truly called

FROM THE BOOK "RAVISHED ARMENIA" which is Aurora Mardiganian's own story substantiated by facts from offisions.

Thousands of People. Facts not Fiction.
PRESS COMMENT
Mrs. Oliver Harriman in "Harper's Bazaar"—
With a courage past belief, Aurora threw herself into the part of motion picture heroine in her own life history. For the sake of the love she bears her people, this young girl lived over again all the horrors of those years of deportation and hunger and misery worse than death.
From the New York Sunday American—
This girl (Aurora Mardiganian) who had been held captive in the harems of the wealthy Turks, had been dragged to the tents of wild Kurdish chiefs, who had been carried off into captivity, slung on the saddle of an Arab raider, who had been purchased by a slave dealer and sold on the auction block to the highest bidder.

Telephone Service.

THE OBVIOUS.

We have shown that the mechanical and electrical devices of this company are constantly (except on storm days) 99 per cent efficient.

We have shown by tests that the automatic telephone service is 99 per cent efficient.

We have shown that telephone calls on the automatic are completed and conversation may commence in 15.4 seconds, after the call is made.

We have shown that 90.3 per cent of the telephone users admit that the service is fair or good.

We have shown where every penny of the money received from telephone users goes to.

Perhaps Mayor Atherton, City Solicitor Ashcraft and the city council think our efficiency record is too good or that the subscribers' money is being wasted. If they do that they will probably keep on with litigation, which if successful, will bring these efficiency figures down, and in any event compel this company to spend money for lawyers and legal costs that might better be put into upkeep and extensions of the telephone plant.

The right thing to do, so far as the relations of this company and the city are concerned is obvious. It sometimes takes courage to do the right thing, even when it is obvious.

CHIGGERS KEEP THREE OFFICIALS SCRATCHING
The regular meeting of the county commissioners was held today and Commissioners J. C. Butt, J. E. McCracken and Chas. D. Lake spent part of the time in attending to the routine office duties and the other part in scratching their legs, for all three officials had a bad case of chiggers, contracted when they were out on a blackberry hunt.
Each had a bottle of salt water and a jar of grease and kept applying them administering balm. They only bother their victims for a week so the county officials will have a busy time for five or six days after which they ought to qualify as experts.

NO COUNTY HAS
"CINCH" ON PRIZE
BUT LICKING LEADS
Columbus, July 22.—Licking county leads in the race for the $10,000 Victory Memorial shaft to be awarded by the Ohio War Savings committee. It is to go to the county selling the largest percentage of its quota of War Savings stamps during June, July and August. Figures just compiled at War Savings headquarters give Licking county a per capita sale during June of $1.07. Morrow county is second with per capita sales of 76 cents. Other leading counties and their per capita sales for June are: Licking, 70 cents; Warren, 68 cents; Fulton, 67 cents; Logan, 62 cents; Harrison,
56 cents; Brown, 55 cents; Scioto,
50 cents; Geauga, 48 cents; Darke, 47 cents; Marion, 47 cents; Ashland, 46 cents; Delaware, 45 cents; Knox, 45 cents; Coshocton, 44 cents and Auglaize, 41 cents.
Leaders at War Savings headquarters do not believe that any county has the prize clinched. It is quite possible they contend that some county not now mentioned among the leaders may prove a dark horse and get away with the mammoth prize. Licking county led in June, is leading in July, but it is August that will tell the story. The $10, 000 prize does not cost the government or the people a penny. It is a gift from the Vermont granite manufacturers association.

GRANVILLE
(Special to The Advocate.)
Granville, July 22.—The Granville women's drive for the sale of war savings stamps to help win the $10,000 memorial shaft for the county is proceeding rather slowly. The district leaders are awaiting the results of the harvest which will be reported. Section leaders for the village are somewhat handicapped by the absence of many of the men from home, others report that the limit was purchased by several residents because the county drive opened in spite of these handicaps, however Granville will be found among the faithful. The township chairman is Mrs. Theodore Johnson. Leaders of the town sections are: Mrs. W. A. Chamberlain, Mrs. H.
C. Sheldin, Mrs. E. J. Cook and Mrs.
Lillie Prouty. There will be several new members of the limit club whose names, it is hoped, may be published. The lead-

TELLS ENGLISH THEY SPEND TOO MUCH ON LUXURY

British Minister Predicts Unparalleled High Prices During Coming Winter—Points Out Causes.

London, July 1.—(By Mail.)—The price of food next winter will "climb to a level never dreamed of," was uttered by Sir Auckland Geddes, the British minister of reconstruction, in an address at Crowe recently.

A member of the audience shouted, "more wages," Sir Auckland replied that there would be no money to pay wages because it would have to go overseas to pay for food.

The minister warned the public that it was squandering its money in a colossal way on things that did not matter. You cannot live like millionaires," he said, "if you are poor as a church mouse. This nation is now poor. It is living as if it were wealthy."

More beer was being brewed in Great Britain yet people complain of a shortage. This he attributed to a doubling of the amount of beer consumed because, since the war, there was more time to drink it and more money to pay for it.

By sending overseas for beer, silk for stockings and feathers for hats, Sir Auckland said, the people were increasing Britain's debt for things that did not matter. "What you ought to get are food and raw material," he declared.

Sir Auckland denounced the limitation of output as "stark, staring lunacy." The mill owners, he said, limited output to obtain higher prices and the operators limited it to make work for more people.

RUMANIAN QUEEN BRINGS RELIEF

Takes Train-load of Red Cross Supplies From Paris To Bucharest To Aid Destitute.

Bucharest, Roumania, June 21.—Queen Marie of Roumania is at present busily engaged in assisting in the distribution of a trainload of American Red Cross supplies, which she personally conveyed from Paris to Bucharest.

During her recent visit to France, the Queen made known the emergency medical needs of the Roumanian soldiers and refugees. She obtained three carloads of medical and surgical equipment from the Red Cross and had three cars attached to the royal train on her return journey. Upon arrival here the supplies were immediately dispatched to central points for distribution to the military hospitals which were in need.

Other supplies were set aside for the refugees fleeing from the fighting zone in Bessarabia.

These supplies have been augmented by a shipment of material which has arrived at Galatz from the Red Cross storehouse in Athens. To insure their prompt delivery, Lieut. Col. Henry W. Anderson, Red Cross Commissioner to the Balkans, himself accompanied the ship from Athens. It was met at Galatz by Roumanian staff officers, and its arrival was the occasion for a remarkable demonstration on the part of the populace.

The resumption of hostilities in Bessarabia is keeping the hospitals there well filled and in adding hundreds to the already large number of homeless refugees.

SULPHUR FOUNTAINS IN MEXICAN CAVE

San Luis Potosi, Mexico, July 5.—(By Mail.)—Workers in a mine at Matamoros, near here, have discovered a cave which is said to be one of the largest in the republic. It is more than 300 feet below the level of the mine and is 15 feet in width. Its length has never been estimated but exploring parties expect to survey it carefully in the near future. One of the most fantastic of its many grotesque adornments is a sulphurous fountain which pours out continuously a stream of blue water.

FIND WASHINGTON'S COAT OF ARMS

London, June 26.—(By Mail.)—The Washington family coat of arms has been discovered in the east window of the parish church at Windermere, Westmorland. The armorial bearings are those of George Washington, first President of the United States. The Washington family originally came from North Lincolnshire, and the east window came from Cartmel Priory in the same county. The coat of arms contains three stars and four stripes, the latter alternating red, white, red, white.

U. S. TRADE WITH JAPAN IMPORTANT

Yokohama, June 12.—(By Mail.)—One half of all the foreign trade through this port last year was in buying from or selling to the United States, says Yokohama Chamber of Commerce. It adds that less than five percent of all this trade was carried in American vessels. The total of the business between the United States and this port in that year was $20,000,000. Exports to America were twice the value of the imports.

There Was a Reason.

Wilbur, Has your son started in at college yet?

Gilbe: Yes. I went down the first week he was there and paid $100 worth of bills.

Wilbur: Great Scott, and he extravagant?

Gilbe: Oh, those were bills that I ran when I was in college. The tradesmen wouldn't take 'em 'cause they were paid in Toledo Blatz.

RUMANIA RICH IN OIL BUT PEOPLE GO WITHOUT FOOD

Wells Are In Ruins and Roumanians Are Destitute—Red Cross Aids Them.

Buzau, Roumania, June 23.—(By Mail.)—Here in the midst of one of the world's richest oil fields, people have been actually starving. Before the war this part of Roumania produced big fortunes in oil, being one of the greatest sources of European supply. Today its wells are in ruins and the people are destitute. The invading armies requisitioned everything that could be piled loose and transported, paralyzing one of the wealthiest industries in the Balkans.

Workers for the American Red Cross, which is distributing relief in the form of food and medicines throughout the country, have found people eating bread made of leaves, twigs and bark from trees. Ponds were bartering the coats off their backs for small portions of corn and peas.

In one place the relief workers found a small local hospital in which patients slept on boards with mattresses and little covering. At home they found five fatherless children, the oldest only nine years of age, looking a meal of tree bark and leaves while the mother was out at work in the fields.

"Typhus is very prevalent and there is an immense amount of smallpox. There is no doctor nor medicines in this village," absolutely no way of taking care of the sick. In another village which had the entire population of 100 persons was ill with some contagious disease."

Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Multifid coconut oil soap, for this is pure and entirely harmless. It's very cheap and keeps the hair soft and pliable. You can get this at any drug store, and a few cures will last the whole family for months.

Simply massage the hair with water and rub it in about a teaspoonful of all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dirt, dust and dandruff.

THE HUB

L. OF N. SECRETARY IS W. TY LONDONER

London, July 20. (By Mail.)—Sir Eric Drummond, the first secretary-general of the League of Nations, is a man in the early forties, of about middle height, with alert, rather humorous eyes and fine features. He is exceedingly witty, a most excellent companion and can sparkle at a dinner party as efficiently as he can draft a clause of a treaty.

Sir Eric is said to possess an astonishingly complete knowledge of the United States and for some years was a recognized authority in the Foreign Office to be consulted on American affairs. He is said to have a gift for international politics that has served his country well in several crises.

SAYS PRESIDENT WAS MISINFORMED

Berlin Paper Says Book Dealing With Boundaries and Languages Misrepresented Facts.

Berlin, June 20. (By Mail.)—The Boers-Zeitung asserts that West Prussia was ceded to Poland by the Peace Conference because of a mistaken and incorrect scientific book published in 1917 by the American Geographical Society, containing an article entitled "The boundaries of language and nationalities" by Leon Dominik.

The German newspapers assert that President Wilson was influenced by this article, which, it says, declared that Danzig was ten per cent Polish and that the present Polish and neighbor East Prussia was purely Polish.

The Boers-Zeitung declares that, on the contrary, Danzig is less than ten per cent Polish. The newspaper disputes the Polish character of the corridor, but it is certain that the article referred to was used in fixing the boundaries.
